

FINANCIAL LITERACY

SERIES

PART 1

BANKING BASICS

August 16, 2023, LIB 311/Discovery Room
12:00 PM - 1:00 PM Lunch Provided

Sets the foundation for your personal finance journey. This lesson will explore different options for financial institutions. Explain the importance of checking and savings accounts as well as the fees that may be associated.

PART 2

BUDGETING

September 13, 2023 LIB 311/ Discovery Room
12:00 PM - 1:00 PM Lunch Provided

Describes the power in taking control of your finances. In this lesson we will explore how a budget can be an empowering tool rather than an intimidating checklist. As well as give tips and resources to align your budgeting practices with what works best for you.

PART 3

CREDIT

October 18, 2023 LIB 311/Discovery Room
12:00 PM - 1:00 PM Lunch Provided

Building off of the first two lessons we will explain the importance of credit as it relates to all aspects of your life and give some insight on how to maintain good credit.

PART 4

IDENTITY PROTECTION

November 1, 2023 EAD 600
12:00 PM - 1:00 PM Lunch Provided

We will wrap up the series with a deep dive on protecting yourself from fraud and scams. We will also share resources on how to be proactive in protecting your identity.

LUNCH PROVIDED MUST RSVP

SCAN
ME!

